Vol. I. Now Ready (Complete 1896).

"It is a rare satisfaction to be able to say that we possess at last the definitive final edition of Burns. It has been a century and more in appearing; but it is well worth waiting for."—THE PALL MALL GAZETTE.

THE CENTENARY BURNS.

EDITED BY

W. E. HENLEY and T. F. HENDERSON.

CONTENTS:

Vol. I. POEMS PUBLISHED by BURNS. Illustrations, Marginal Glossary, and Notes.—Vol. II. POSTHUMOUS POEMS: (1) The JOLLY BEGGARS; (2) SATIRES and VERSES; (3) EPISTLES; (4) MISCELLANIES; (5) FRAGMENTS; (6) THEATRICAL PIECES; (7) POLITICAL PIECES; (8) EPIGRAMS; (9) EPITAPHS. Illustrations, Marginal Glossary, and Notes.—Vol. III. SONGS. Illustrations, Marginal Glossary, and Notes.—Vol. IV. SONGS, UNAUTHENTICATED PIECES, ADDENDA. Illustrations, Marginal Glossary, Notes, Glossarial Index and General Index; ESSAY on the LIFE and GENIUS of BURNS, by W. E. HENLEY.

Extract from Prospectus.—"The Editors purpose, first, to present as pure and as ungarbled a text of their author—who has much to gain in this matter—as collation with MSS. and original editions will permit; next, to make such corrections in respect of facts and dates as they deem necessary; and last, to reduce to its essentials the immense accretion of history and comment and legend which has centred about the life and the work of Burns, and to relegate it to a place apart from the verse itself, so that nothing save their running glossary, which will appear in the form of marginalia, will distract the attention of readers of Burns's poetry to the prose of Burns's annotators and critics. . . . Access to some notable collections of Burns' MSS. and Chap-books—collections not open to earlier editors—have enabled the editors to include some new poems and many interesting new readings."

The Work (which will be printed by Constable) will be published in Two Forms, viz.:

LIBRARY EDITION, in 4 vols., tall crown octavo; printed on Arnold's unbleached Hand-made Paper, containing fac-similia of MSS., and Reproductions in Photogravure of all the authentic Portraits; limited to 600 copies for this country, and 150 for America, numbered and signed by the Publishers, at 10s. 6d. the vol. net.

ILLUSTRATED EDITION, in 4 vols., demy octavo; printed on superfine paper, and containing an Etched Portrait and from 20 to 24 Original Etchings by W. Hole, R.S.A., on Japanese vellum, price 10s. 6d. the vol. net. Of this Edition there will be a limited impression of 90 numbered Large-Paper Copies on Arnold's Hand-made Paper, with the Etchings printed on Japanese vellum as proofs before letters, price £1 11s. 6d. the vol. net.

FAMOUS SCOTS.

The Second Volume of the Series is now Ready.

Price 1s. 6d. cloth; and in extra binding, gilt top, 2s. 6d.

ALLAN RAMSAY.

By OLIPHANT SMEATON.

The Scotsman says: "With Mr. Oliphant Smeaton Ramsay's fame and character are in good hands. Granted the space at command in these compact and tasteful little volumes, it is not easy to see how the life, the times, the environment, and the genius of the author of 'The Gentle Shepherd' could have had more justice done to them."

In the same Series. Price 1s. 6d. cloth; extra binding, gilt top, 2s. 6d.

THOMAS CARLYLE.

By HECTOR C. MACPHERSON.

"Mr. Macpherson has done his work well. He is evidently an able man, a thinker and a critic. We heartily congratulate author and publishers on the happy commencement of this admirable enterprise."—British Weekly.

The Third Edition of S. R. CROCKETT'S

SWEETHEART TRAVELLERS,

Illustrated by GORDON BROWNE, is Now Ready. Price 6s.

"Had any one ever been disinclined to believe in Mr. Crockett's genius he must have recanted and repented in sackcloth and ashes after enjoying 'Sweetheart Travellers.' It is the rarest of all rarities, and veritably a child's book for children, as well as for women and for men. It is seldom indeed that the reviewer has the opportunity of bestowing unstinted praise with the feeling that the laudation is, nevertheless, inadequate. 'Sweetheart Travellers' is instinct with drollery; it continually strikes the softest notes of tenderest pathos, like some sweet old-fashioned nursery melody, and it must make the most hardened bachelor feel something of the pleasures he has missed in living mateless and childless."—Times.

"Mr. Crockett must be credited with one of the most pronounced successes of the season."—World.

"One of the daintiest and most charming of gift-books."—Scotsman.

Now Ready, the Second Edition of MRS. L. T. MEADE'S

A PRINCESS OF THE GUTTER,

Price 6s.

"One of the best books of the season is 'A Princess of the Gutter,' by L. T. Meade, a refined and fascinating tale of London life. Nothing better has ever come from the pen of L. T. Meade; in fact, 'A Princess of the Gutter' might almost have been written by Sir Walter Besant."—Literary World.

THE NOVEL OF THE SEASON.

THIRD LARGE EDITION IN THE PRESS.

A Lady of Quality.

BY FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT.

In Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt, 6s.

THE DAILY CHRONICLE says: "It is a fine story, and the heroine is a singularly well-conceived and powerfully-wrought character. The record of her life is something more than a story; it is an epic. By sheer force of adamantine will, motived and stimulated by love, Clorinda recreated herself from something like a fiend to something still more like a saint; but not a plaster saint, be it noted—a thing of flesh and blood. To say that this is the best book the author of 'Through One Administration' has yet given us is to say a great deal, but it is not to say one word too much."

THE MORNING POST says: "Few who once enter into the extraordinary story of Clorinda Wildairs are likely to leave it unfinished. The 'Lady of Quality' stands out a living figure amid a crowd of puppets as a creation which will count among the most remarkable in the fiction of to-day."

THE NEW AGE says: "The present publishing season is little likely to give us a better conceived or more powerfully-drawn character than that of the heroine, Clorinda Wildairs. Mrs. Burnett has set the conventions of fiction resolutely aside; she has done a strong thing in a strong way, and is more than justified of her work."
